

United Way of Monmouth County Appoints Four New Board Members

Fatima Camacho, George Destafney, Judith Dorsey, and Eric Menaker Join United Way of Monmouth County's Board of Directors

Farmingdale, New Jersey – United Way of Monmouth County has announced the appointment of four new Board members. “The four new appointed members all bring energy and talent onto United Way’s Board,” stated Timothy C. Hearne, President & CEO of United Way of Monmouth County. “They are all extremely capable individuals and I am glad that they have agreed to join us in our work.”

The Board represents the public interest in serving identified needs and provides stewardship over funds raised from the public to perform the organization’s mission of improving the lives of the people of Monmouth County.

New members include:

Fatima Camacho - Fatima Camacho is Assistant Vice President, Investors Savings Bank headquartered in Short Hills NJ. Investors Savings Bank has been serving the banking needs of New Jersey families since 1926. With over $8.0 billion in assets and a network of 60 branches in ten Garden State counties, the Bank delivers personalized friendly service, and products tailored to the needs of customers.

Camacho manages the Long Branch office on Broadway, and has been with Investors since 1989. She has served the diverse community with bilingual financial literacy training and volunteers for various not-for-profit organizations. Camacho is married with two children and resides in Neptune.

George Destafney – George Destafney has held executive leadership positions in finance for a number of years. He currently serves as the Vice President, Relationship Manager for TD Bank, NA in Mt. Laurel, NJ.

Destafney is active in a number of other community organizations such as the Boys and Girls Club of Monmouth County, Neptune Economic Development Council, Marine Corporation Scholarship Foundations and the Eatontown Economic Advisory Board.

Judith Dorsey – Judith Dorsey is a Human Resources Executive with extensive management experience at both division and corporate levels for Fortune 500 organizations. Currently, she is Vice President of Human Resources for the Gannett New Jersey Media Group.

Dorsey holds a BA in Psychology from Syracuse University and an MA in Management and Labor Relations from Rutgers University. Active in community organizations, she is a Board member of New Jersey Coalition Against Sexual Assault (NJCASA) and Harlem YMCA and a Women Unlimited Mentor.

Eric Menaker – Eric Menaker has over 20 years experience in the information technology and telecommunications industry. He currently serves as a Business Unit Executive for the IBM Corporation, Systems and Technology Group. He has a proven track record of successfully managing large operational and project teams from a client and vendor prospective. Menaker has a strong technical, project management and sales background.

Menaker has earned a BBA from Pace University in Management Information Systems and Accounting and a MS from Polytechnic University in Technology Management. He has also earned a Six Sigma Black Belt Certification from General Electric, a Project Management Professional Certification from PMI Institute, and attended an IBM Sponsored Executive Education on Business Leadership from Harvard University.
